

Aloha Families,

This week has flown by! Students have been busy shopping at our Scholastic Book Fair — thank you to all the parents who stopped by to support! Your purchases help earn free books and classroom funds for our teachers.

Classes 5/6 and 7/8 enjoyed an amazing adventure on the Fairwinds cruise this week, where they went snorkeling in beautiful Kealakekua Bay.

Next week will be a short week, with classes on Monday through Wednesday only. There will be no school on Thursday and Friday due to parent-teacher conferences.

On Wednesday, we'll celebrate our annual Literature Celebration, featuring activities and fun inspired by Roald Dahl's books. We'll also be carving pumpkins, and parents are welcome to volunteer to help their child's class. Pumpkin donations are highly encouraged and greatly appreciated! If you're interested in donating pumpkins or volunteering, please reach out to your child's teacher for more information.

Parent-Teacher Conference Sign-Ups

Parent-Teacher Conferences will be held on October 30th–31st (no school for all students). Please check your email or class communication for conference sign-up links sent by your child's teacher.

Yearbooks ~ Don't miss out on this year's memories! Yearbooks are $25 and can be ordered online through this LINK.
