

Aloha Kona Pacific Families,

We hope you're having a wonderful week! Here are some exciting updates and important reminders for the upcoming week:

This Week's Adventures

Our middle school students had an incredible time exploring the ocean depths on the Atlantis Submarine this week! They learned all about underwater landscapes and marine life, making for a truly memorable and educational adventure.

Meanwhile, our 5th-grade class had a fantastic field trip to the Salt Farm, where they discovered the art and science behind salt production. To top it off, they enjoyed some fun in the sun with a beach trip afterward!

No School Reminder

Just a reminder that there will be no school on Monday, September 2nd, in observance of Labor Day. We hope you all have a relaxing and enjoyable long weekend!

Next Week's Lunch Menu

Here's what's cooking in our school kitchen next week:

- Tuesday, 9/3: Cream of Mushroom Chicken with Rice
- Wednesday, 9/4: Cheeseburger with Tater Tots
- Thursday, 9/5: Spaghetti with Meatballs
- Friday, 9/6: Chicken Tenders with Rice and Ranch Sauce

Upcoming Events and Reminders

- Labor Day - No School on Monday, September 2nd
- Prekindergarten and Kindergarten Pickup: Pickup is between 2:00 and 2:15 PM on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday. We kindly ask that families without PreK or Kindergarten students wait until 2:30 PM to arrive on campus to allow for the safe dismissal of our youngest students.

As always, thank you for being a part of the Kona Pacific 'ohana. Have a wonderful weekend, and we look forward to seeing everyone back on Tuesday!
